

Larry Glover-Wetherington

Are you ready to move forward professionally and vocationally in your ministry? Coaching provides you with a structured opportunity to think through your aspirations and formulate actionable goals to move in the direction of your sense of calling and purpose. Coaching is respectful of the principle that you are the authority for your life and ministry. Larry Glover-Wetherington brings 35 years' experience as pastor, intentional interim pastor, church consultant, personal and congregational coach, and spiritual director and is intimately familiar with congregational dynamics and the challenges of ministers and congregations in the current environment.

Training and Background

Executive Director, Consultation Ministries, Inc.

Member, International Coaching Federation (ICF)

Coach Training, Wake Forest University Professional Development Center & the Center for Congregational Health

Appreciative Coach Training, The Clergy Leadership Institute

Congregational Coach Training, CBFNC led by Eddie Hammett

Appreciative Leadership for Transformation, The Clergy Leadership Institute

Professional Transition Specialist, Interim Ministry Network

Intentional Interim Ministry Specialist, Center for Congregational Health

Church Consultant Training, Center for Congregational Health

Missional Transformation Training – Center for Parish Development

Conflict Mediation, Durham Dispute Settlement Center and Duke University

Spiritual Direction, The Shalem Spiritual Guidance Institute

<http://www.linkedin.com/in/larrygloverwetherington>

Contact: 919-972-9317 coach@ConsultMin.org