LIGHTING OF THE CANDLE IN MEMORY OF ROBERT MICKEY JAMES, SR.

CALL TO WORSHIP Psalm 95:6-7a; Isaiah 6:3b; Luke 4:8; Romans 11:33-36 Dr. Loftis

O come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker!
For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture, and the sheep of His hand.

“Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of Hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory.”

“It is written, ‘you shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve’.”

O the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and how inscrutable His ways!

“For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been His counselor?”

“Or who has given a gift to Him that He might be repaid?”

All: For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever. Amen.

First Baptist Church
Installation Service – The Reverend Robert M. James, Jr.

COVENANT AND CHARGE TO REV. ROBERT MICKEY JAMES, JR.

To the Reverend Robert James: Having accepted the call of the people of First Baptist Church to be our Pastor and spiritual leader, to fulfill the preaching, pastoral, and administrative responsibilities necessary to carry out God's work, do you affirm each of the following:

That you will be a trustworthy shepherd, endeavoring to understand, love, and care for the people of First Baptist Church;

With God's help, I will.

That you will establish your ministry upon the Bible as the Word of God, endeavor to grow in your knowledge and skills through thoughtful study, and depend on the Holy Spirit for guidance and direction;

With God's help, I will.

That you will maintain a strong personal devotional life, spending time in practice of spiritual disciplines, including Scripture reading, prayer, and meditation.

With God's help, I will.

That you will lead us in discerning, embracing, and fulfilling God's will for First Baptist Church by working cooperatively with congregation and staff to foster opportunities for discipleship, outreach, ministry, and witness as God leads.

With God's help, I will.

That you will encourage the congregation to be ambassadors for Christ by nurturing the church and by reaching the unchurched with the liberating power of God's grace.

With God's help, I will.

That you will seek to live out the servant-leader example set by Jesus Christ: acting justly, loving mercy and walking humbly with your God.

With God's help, I will.

That you will place a high priority on your family life and give to Leona, Cecilia, Sophia, and Carol the time, attention, and consideration they need and deserve.

With God's help, I will.

That you will seek to serve God as co-laborers with the members of this Congregation, honoring our belief that 'every member is a minister.'

With God's help, I will.

CHARGE TO THE CONGREGATION OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH:

To the people of First Baptist Church, Fayetteville, North Carolina: Having called the Reverend Robert James to be our Pastor, do you affirm each of the following:

That you will respect and honor the office of our Pastor, trusting him to be a person of integrity and ability and a faithful servant of God and this congregation.

With God's help, we will.

That you will love him as our Pastor and love and accept him as a fellow human being.

With God's help, we will.

That you will strive to create an atmosphere of open communication through which there is mutual encouragement and support for Rev. James.

With God's help, we will.

That you will understand that the Pastor is human and is subject to the limitations of humanity.

With God's help, we will.

That you will give him freedom in the pulpit to express honest, thoughtful convictions in interpreting God's Word, even when they do not always coincide with those of every individual in the congregation.

With God's help, we will.

That you will undergird our Pastor's ministry with daily prayer and with a positive and loving attitude in order that he might be uplifted and strengthened to serve this church.

With God's help, we will.

That you will support the church and the Pastor by exercising your spiritual gifts and being present and involved in stewardship of time and money, worship and Bible study, congregational meetings and seeking Christ's Spirit and direction.

With God's help, we will.

That you will share your love with our Pastor's family – Leoná, Cecilia, Sophia, and Carol respecting the need for the pastor to spend time with his own family, and granting each of them the freedom to express their unique personalities and gifts so as to develop fully into the persons God created them to be.

With God's help, we will.

That you will seek to serve God as co-laborers with Rev. James, honoring our belief that 'every member is a minister.'

With God's help, we will.

(Please stand as you are able.)

TO THE PEOPLE AND PASTOR:

To the Pastor and People of First Baptist Church: Having been led by the Holy Spirit to this covenant relationship, do you affirm that you will work together in love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control to fulfill God's will for First Baptist Church.

With God's help, we will.

The Summons

John L. Bell Arranged by Bobby Fisher

Will you come and follow Me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let My love be shown? Will you let My name be known,
Will you let My life be grown in you and you in Me?

Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare, should your life attract or scare?
Will you let Me answer prayer in you and you in Me?

Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean, and do such as this unseen,
And admit to what I mean in you and you in Me?

Will you love the "you" you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found, to reshape the world around,
Through My sight and touch and sound in you and you in Me?

(Please stand and sing together.)

Lord Your summons echoes true when You but call my name.
Let me turn and follow You and never be the same.
In Your company I'll go, where Your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in You and You in me.

THE NORMAN ROCKWELL SUNDAY BULLETIN SERIES
Norman Rockwell was born February 3, 1894, in Manhattan. The youngest of two children, he was raised in a God-fearing household by an invalid mother and a father who loved to read aloud to the family. Encouraged as a youngster to develop his talent for drawing, he began his career as an illustrator in 1910 and began working for The Saturday Evening Post in 1916. Rockwell's work is said to portray Americans as they see themselves and to remind them of old values in rapidly changing times.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Dr. Walter Byrum

To the powerful and the powerless, God calls us into the work of love.

The poor and the oppressor have this in common: the Lord gives light to the eyes of both.

Within the dissonance and the harmony, God calls us into the song of love.

God has put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God.

As the Word became flesh and lived among us, God calls us into the story of love.

And we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.

May love be the relentless pursuit of this beloved community, as pastor and people embark on a new journey together.

All: Since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. If we love one another, God lives in us, and God's love is perfected in us. Alleluia!

THE CHURCH IN COVENANT

DR. BILL LEE

By the leading of the Holy Spirit, we have called this man of God, Brad Smith, to be our Pastor, and he has responded as God has led him. Therefore, we do now enter into a solemn covenant with God and with our Pastor that we will faithfully follow his leadership as he follows Christ.

With thankful hearts for God's mercy and goodness, we accept this solemn covenant with God and with our Pastor.

Recognizing that this relationship with our Pastor is by divine appointment through the providence of God, we do now pledge to him our support as co-workers for Christ, our prayers as believers, our promise to participate in the worship services of the church, and our support of the total ministry of the church. We will encourage and sustain him in the discharge of his responsibilities as he follows the direction of our Lord.

With understanding love and a willingness to service God, we accept these responsibilities to go hand in hand with God and our Pastor.

Acknowledging that in and through Jesus Christ we are strengthened, we promise to work toward the evangelization of this community and the worldwide extension of the Kingdom of God, to strive to enhance the Church of Christ, and to endeavor to embody the truth of God's word in our daily lives. This high obligation requires that we be good stewards of all we have received from God and that we show the love of Christ toward all persons whom our influence touches.

With a fervent desire to advance the cause of Christ, we accept the challenge of this covenant.

All: Remembering gratefully all of those who have gone before us in the faith of our fathers and mothers, without whose sacrifice and dedication we would not be here today, we pause to honor our church's past. With joy for those who shall come after us, we join hearts to go forward in Christian unity and fellowship through our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. To God be the glory forever, Amen.
